Beverly K. Duval, Linda Main : Automated Library Systems: A Librarian's Guide and Teaching Manual (Supplements to Computers in Libraries) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Automated Library Systems: A Librarian's Guide and Teaching Manual (Supplements to Computers in Libraries):

Part of the "Supplements to Computers in Libraries" series, this text is a guide to automated library sytems. Amongst the areas covered are the planning process, core modules, retrospective conversion, the Online Public Access Catalogue and CD-ROM based automated library systems.
