Patricia Falk, Stefanie Hunker : Cataloguing Outside the Box: A Practical Guide to Cataloguing Special Collections Materials (Chandos Information Professional Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cataloguing Outside the Box: A Practical Guide to Cataloguing Special Collections Materials (Chandos Information Professional Series):

A practical guide to cataloguing and processing the unique special collections formats in the Browne Popular Culture Library (BPCL) and the Music Library and Sound Recordings Archives (MLSRA) at Bowling Green State University (BGSU) (e.g. fanzines, popular sound recordings, comic books, motion picture scripts and press kits, popular fiction). Cataloguing Outside the Box provides guidance to professionals in library and information science facing the same cataloguing challenges. Additionally, name authority work for these collections is addressed. Provides practical guidelines and solutions for cataloguing challenges. Draws on the authors varied experiences with these special materials. Addresses specific, unique special collections materials.

The authors have produced a practical guide to the variables and complexities of cataloguing materials held in unique special collections formats and supply a useful tool to aid current practice and inform future training. Library About the Author Patricia K. Falk is the Special Collections Cataloguer at Bowling Green State University and works both in the MLSRA and the BPCL. She catalogues print and non-print materials and is an independent contributor to the NACO Music Project Funnel. Stefanie Hunker is the Digital Resources Librarian in the BPCL at BGSU. She is responsible for the development and maintenance of the BPCL web site and blog and also catalogues print and non-print materials with AACR2 cataloguing and modified Dublin Core metadata.
