Amy J. Alessio, Heather Booth : Club Programs for Teens: 100 Activities for the Entire Year before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Club Programs for Teens: 100 Activities for the Entire Year:

Want to keep the momentum going after a successful teen event? That one off can easily be turned into a popular monthly club that will keep young adults coming back. Alessio, co-author of the bestsellers A Year of Programs for Teens and A Year of Programs for Teens 2, and Booth, co-editor of The Whole Library Handbook: Teen Services, show you how. Designed to be used in school or public library settings, this uniquely themed program guide offers guidance on how to handle summer, winter and year-round reading programs, with activities ranging from easy to elaborateProvides activities useful for libraries with monthly teen clubs as well as those who want to plan occasional fun eventsSaves planning time and offers maximum flexibility by cross-referencing programs by themes, allowing one program to be used with different audiencesIncludes resource lists, readlikes, tips for success, and lessons learned from programs that went awryWhether you re a teen program novice or simply want to make your existing programming more effective, the club programs presented here will make teens excited to return to your library week after week.

Many of the ideas can be adapted for use in groups of different sizes or budget limitations. The directions are clear and easy to follow, with a wide variety of ideas provided. With the current interest in makerspaces and maker programming in libraries, this title provides some proven ideas for getting started with or revitalizing teen clubs." -- BooklistALA's teen program manual broadens club outreach on solid educational grounds ... This is an excellent compilation of teen interests for public and school libraries and for the shelves of homeschoolers and church, 4-H, and scout leaders." --Voice of Youth AdvocatesAbout the AuthorAmy J. Alessio is a teen librarian at the Schaumburg Township District Library in Illinois. She writes and edits fiction and nonfiction, including two books coauthored with Kim Patton: A Year of Programs for Teens (2007) and A Year of Programs for Teens 2 (2011). Alessio s reviews have appeared in Booklist and Crimespree Magazine.
