Elias Miguel Munoz : Crazy Love (Societies; 8) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Crazy Love (Societies; 8):

This experimental novel is at the same time a novel of immigration from Cuba to Florida, an epistolary novel, and a novel of a child coming of age by examining his family's past experiences. In all, the novel is a mosaic of Cuban-American culture.

"The novel belongs to the now-venerable coming-of-age-in-America tradition, yet has an urgent newness to it..." -- Hispania
