My Methodist mother-in-law and Southern Baptist mom both love it. I'm giving it to my Reformed Baptist brother soon. Where'er the Catholic sun doth shine, There's music and laughter and good red wine. At least I've always found it so. Benedicamus Domino! -Hilaire Belloc And cocktails and fine beer, too, May Our Lord be e'er with you! (Begging the pardon of the late Belloc.) 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. A Gift for All Seasons By Kevin Ryan "Drinking with the Saints" is a treasure of a book. It is filled with highly readable, often funny, stories of our saints. The recipes are almost too inviting!! The book, itself, is a thing of beauty. Wonderful illustrations. Organized by day and month. Striking layout. Even the book's paper is high quality. Don't buy one, because you'll want to give this book away. Perfect for college graduation, for birthdays and anniversaries. And what better gift for Father's Day to help dad out of his Scotch and water rut. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. The new house has a wet bar and this is the perfect item to have sitting next to the sink for a quick read. The material is organized by liturgical calendar (the 1962 - which is a fantastic touch) which I didn't know when I purchased. It's not meant to be read straight through but instead reads a lot like Lives of the Saints, but with drinking! I love it!

Pub crawl your way through the sacred seasons with this entertaining and useful collection of cocktail recipes, distilled spirits, beer, and wine for virtually every occasion on the Catholic liturgical calendar. One part bartender's guide, one part spiritual manual, a dash of irreverence, and mixed with love: Drinking with the Saints is a work that both sinner and saint will savor.
