Carl-Ulrik Schierup, Peo Hansen, Stephen Castles : Migration, Citizenship, and the European Welfare State: A European Dilemma (European Societies) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Migration, Citizenship, and the European Welfare State: A European Dilemma (European Societies):

This is a key new analysis of two major European issues: the impact of immigration and ethnic diversity on the nation state, and the declining capacity of the welfare state to maintain social equity. Detailed case-studies demonstrate the growing significance of the EU's role in formulating policy on migration, integration, discrimination, asylum, and racism.

About the Author Carl-Ulrik Schierup is at Professor of Sociology of Work, National Institute for Working Life and Department of Ethnic Studies, Linköping University, Sweden. Peo Hansen is at Associate Professor of Ethnic Studies, Linköping University, Sweden.
