Readings from the Edges: The Bible and People on the Move (Studies in Latino/a Catholicism):

An exploration of borders by a Hispanic scholar that connects the migration of peoples with biblical texts. Cleverly weaving together a range of themes connected with borders such as migration, postcolonialism, living in exile, and the immigrant experience Ruiz's readings, from the perspective of a Puerto Rican in New York, bring biblical texts into conversation with well known Hispanic theologians and biblical scholars.

About the Author Jean-Pierre Ruiz is associate professor of biblical studies at St. John's University in New York, where he is also a senior research fellow of the Vincentian Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology and Religion. A past president of the Academy of Catholic Hispanic Theologians of the United States, he is editor of the Journal of Hispanic / Latino Theology and associate editor of the Journal of the American Academy of Religion.
