Francesca T. Royster : Sounding Like a No-No: Queer Sounds and Eccentric Acts in the Post-Soul Era before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Sounding Like a No-No:

Queer Sounds and Eccentric Acts in the Post-Soul Era:

"Roysters reclaiming of eccentricity is a productive move that locates queerness and blackness in alliance against the structures of whiteness and (hetero)normativity. ... Sounding Like a No-No participates in the construction of a black imaginary that embraces its past in all its complexities, from violence to resistance, and multiple forms of embodiment and speech."
