By Beautiful Sunshine Even though it is a little older of a book, it is great to have around whenever any questionable situation arises for a newer reporter who may not know the protocol for something. It gives me a great direction to go in whenever I'm not sure what to do. 4 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Court Reporting Firm Management Expertise By Terry W. Etl Dana has really nailed the expertise required to start and run a court reporting firm in today's competitive environment. Marketing, business management, staff payroll and attorney billing are all additional aspects that every successful firm needs. How do you run a successful firm and compete with office management software for your deposition calendar, attorney billing, court reporter payroll, and web repository? There is only one recommended book to tell you what you need to know. Thank you Dana for helping court reporting firms compete in today's technologically advanced markets![...]3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. New Students, or just out of school..
