

(Free pdf) Teaching and Learning in Virtual Environments: Archives, Museums, and Libraries

Teaching and Learning in Virtual Environments: Archives, Museums, and Libraries

From Libraries Unlimited

Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

Download

Read Online

#2683485 in Books 2016-09-26 Original language: English PDF # 1 9.20 x .70 x 6.101, .0 #File Name: 1440841748246 pages | File size: 79.Mb

From Libraries Unlimited : Teaching and Learning in Virtual Environments: Archives, Museums, and Libraries before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Teaching and Learning in Virtual Environments: Archives, Museums, and Libraries:

Useful to school librarians, teachers, and faculty, this book explains the range of possibilities for creating immersive learning experiences through the use of virtual worlds, virtual simulations, virtual collections, exhibits by libraries and museums, and archives. Explains how using virtual worlds in teaching and outreach can better motivate, engage, and reach more students with diverse learning styles than traditional text-based methods Updated with information on the latest technology and newest library applications Enables readers to make more informed decisions about which latest virtual reality platforms to use

About the Author Patricia C. Franks, PhD, is program coordinator for the Master's Degree in Archives and Records Administration at the School of Information at San Jose State University. Lori A. Bell is adjunct lecturer with San Jose State School of Information and the University of Hawaii Graduate School of Library and Information Science. Rhonda B. Trueman is acquisitions and access services librarian at Northwest Florida State College.