Robert E. Berkowitz, Michael B. Eisenberg : The Big6 Research Notebook (25 pack) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Big6 Research Notebook (25 pack):

I wish I had ordered it earlier in the school year! Each of these 16 page booklets contains an introduction to each of the strategies of the Big6 and has room for the student to complete the task. This is perfect to use with a small guided research project to introduce the Big6. As a School Media Specialist I plan to use this with 5th grade students who need an introduction to structured research. What a great way to help students who are floundering in their research tasks. I also plan to give copies to the 4, 5, and 6th grade teachers so they can see how the Big6 can work in their classrooms. At 88 cents each, they are well worth the money. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Poorly described By A. Dillon I recently ordered this product for use in my classroom. The product description, as well as the order confirmation, said that there would be a pack of 25 notebooks.

(The Big6 Research Notebook (25 pack))When I received my order, there was only one notebook and that notebook had cover damage. I called and asked for a replacement shipment. The second shipment also had only one notebook. I returned both shipments and am awaiting my refund. The notebook was very thin and, while it may be convenient, I think a more efficient and improved tool could easily be made electronically and printed for student use. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. However, from the publisher the $21.95 price includes 25 copies of this 16 page workbook; from the $17.56 price is for one copy! I love , so I was shocked. I returned The Big6 Research Notebook and ordered (25) from Linworth Publishing. ([...]
