4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. OKBy SusaninacloudI haven't found any lesson plan that made me say, Why didn't I think of that? It's all very typical, but I can see how the book might be a good introduction for a new librarian.4 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Awesome book!By KarenThis is an awesome book! It is just exactly what I was looking for as a first year librarian without a curriculum. I am so glad I bought it!0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Sara E BengeGreat!

Suggestions for thoughtful lesson planning, creative motivational techniques, productive use of technology, and effective behavior management for teacher-librarians seeking to effect positive change in their school communities.

From the Inside Flap A Tibrarian, put simply, is a teacher-librarian a librarian who does all she can to make her library classroom the most hands-on, supportive, and engaging learning environment possible. A Tibrarian seeks out every opportunity to foster a love of reading in her students, works tirelessly to create dynamic lesson plans that enhance what is being taught in the classroom, illuminates every resource the library has to offer, and is constantly alert for new ways to excite her school population about information, books, and reading.
